Originally From Corvallis, Oregon, Peter Brye began his musical studies at the age of six on the piano with his father, Joseph C. Brye. By the age of eight he was playing the 'cello. He continued his studies and eventually earned a Bachelor of Music degree from the University of Oregon as a 'cello performance major. His studies continued at the Pennsylvania State University where he received the Master of Music degree in 'cello performance. Mr. Brye has done additional work at Peabody Conservatory, Temple University, University of Michigan and at the Conductors Institute – University of South Carolina.

Currently in his twenty third year at Millersville University, Brye serves as a professor of 'cello and conductor of the Millersville University Orchestra. He also teaches instrumental conducting, string pedagogy and courses in music history and is the Assistant Chair of the Department of Music.

In addition to serving as the Music Director and Conductor of the Reading Symphony Youth Orchestra, he has served as an assistant conductor for the Reading Symphony Orchestra and has appeared as guest conductor for many orchestra festivals throughout the northeast. Mr. Brye appears frequently as a 'cello recitalist, orchestral soloist, and chamber musician throughout the central Pennsylvania area and is currently the assistant principal 'cellist of the Reading Symphony Orchestra.

James O'Dell has been professionally active in instrumental music and music education for the past twenty-four years. Mr. O'Dell holds a Bachelor of Science in Music Education from Southern Oregon University (1978), a Master of Music in Tuba, Euphonium, and Bass Trombone Performance from the University of Oregon (1983), and doctoral studies at Arizona State University (1983-84). Mr. O'Dell is currently the newly appointed Assistant Dean of The Boston Conservatory, a post he assumed after a nine-year tenure as Director of the Conservatory's Music Division.

Mr. O'Dell's previous full-time faculty appointments include Director of Bands at Boston University (MA), Mansfield University (PA), and Phoenix College (AZ). His adjunct appointments include Lecturing Professor and Director of the Festival Jazz Ensemble at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MA), jazz and applied faculty at the Rivers Music School (MA), graduate teaching fellow at the University of Oregon, and applied faculty at Lane Community College (OR). He has taught in the Oregon public schools as Director of Bands and Elementary Music Teacher (Eagle Point and Phoenix OR), and more recently, as Supervisor of Instrumental Music for the Chelsea Public Schools (Boston University/Chelsea Partnership).

A distinguished and versatile educator, conductor, and musician, Mr. O'Dell is the Music Director and Conductor of both the Middlesex Concert Band and the Southeastern Massachusetts Community Concert Band, and is the Associate Conductor of the Metropolitan Wind Symphony. His collegiate conducting tenures have included marching, pep, concert, and jazz bands, wind ensemble and brass ensemble. He is founder of the New England Collegiate Jazz Festival, Boston TubaChristmas, and cofounder of the Boston Tuba Quartet and The Brass Consortium.

As a tubist he has toured, recorded, and performed with the Ken Shaphorst Big Band, True Colors Big Band, Jazz Composers Alliance Orchestra, Darrel Katz Jazz Orchestra, Greg Hopkins Nonet, the Boston Globe Repertory Jazz Orchestra (Gunther Schuller, conductor), Orange Then Blue, and as soloist with the Harvard Summer Band. He has been a member of the faculty brass quintets at the University of Oregon and Mansfield University (PA), and principal tuba with the Eugene Symphony Orchestra. A low brass doubler on bass trombone and euphonium, he has performed with the Rogue Valley Symphony, Ashland Summer Band, Starlighters Swing Orchestra, and the Eugene Symphony Brass Trio.

Within New England, Mr. O'Dell is past President and Vice-President of the New England College Band Association (NECBA), and on the executive board of IAJE/MA unit as the jazz composition contest chairman. He has remained active as guest conductor, adjudicator, and clinician for NESBA, MENC, MICA, MMEA, NYSMA, Rhode Island Music Educators Association, Maine Music Educators Association, Performing Arts Consultants, and Music Festivals. He is an honorary member of Phi Kappa Lambda, Kappa Kappa Psi, and Tau Beta Sigma, and an active member and faculty advisor of Phi Mu Alpha.

His national and state associations include CBDNA, MMEA, MENC, IAJE, and NECBA.

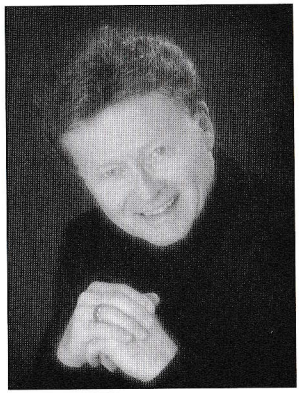
Christopher Desjardins, manager, Wilmington Public Schools
Blake Siskavich, assistant manager, Wilmington Public Schools



Roy S. Kelley is a graduate of the University of Vermont. He served the educational system for 31 years as a music specialist in Vermont and Massachusetts. The last 25 of those years was spent in Massachusetts with the Brookline School System. On the Masters level, he studied choral conducting with Lorna Cooke de Varon at the New England Conservatory of Music. During his Brookline years, his choruses performed at Symphony Hall under the direction of Harry Ellis Dickson and Segi Ozawa. Mr.Kelley retired from public school teaching in 1992.

Mr. Kelley has served as President of the New England Chapter of the American Orff-Schulwerk Association and is still a member of MMEA, MENC, as well as the Boston Chapter of the American Guild of Organists. During his teaching tenure he has been guest conductor for choral festivals in New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Rhode Island. For several years during the 70's he was the Choral Specialist with the Rhode Island Summer Music and Dance Camp at the University of Rhode Island.

Mr. Kelley is Founder and Artistic Director of the Charles River Chorale, based in Millis MA, now in its 19th season as well as Director of the Snug Harbor Community Chorus, Duxbury MA, now in his 3rd season. In September he assumed the duties as Director of Choral Activities at the Ip Piano School in Chinatown. In June he will have completed his 9th year as Organist/Choirmaster with The Parish of St. John the Evangelist in Duxbury, MA, however, he has served many denominations as Choir Director/Organist since 1959.

A Challenge to Young Musicians

Go to, then, you who are gifted; cultivate your gift.
Develop it in any of the arts and in every worthy example of them.
If you have the ability and the desire, seek a career or employ your talent as an avocation or cultivate it as a hobby.
But in all ways, bless others with it.
