Mr. Kenneth Hanson is well recognized among music educators in New England where he has adjudicated strings for Junior and Senior Districts, Massachusetts and New Hampshire All-States and the New England Music Festival Association. He is a graduate of Lowell State College with a Bachelor's Degree in Music Education and of Fitchburg State College with a Master's Degree in Secondary Education. Mr. Hanson is a member of the Department of Fine & Performing Arts in the Belmont Public Schools where he is the director of the string and orchestra students in grades 3-12. Over the years, Mr. Hanson has served many times as manager for the Junior and Senior District, All-State and All-Eastern Orchestras, as well as Junior District and All-State Concert Chairman and Housing Chairman. He has conducted many District Orchestras, String Jamborees and String Festivals throughout Massachusetts in addition to the Cape and Islands Festival Orchestra, the Rhode Island, New Hampshire and Maine All-State Junior High Orchestras.

During the past twenty years Mr. Hanson's High School and Middle School Orchestras have been selected to perform many times at the MMEA All-State and All-Eastern Conferences. His groups have also toured extensively in Canada, England, Scotland, France, Germany, Austria, Italy and the Czech Republic.

In 1989, Mr. Hanson received the Director of the Year Award from the Massachusetts School Orchestra Association and in 1992 he was selected by the Massachusetts Music Educators' Association to receive the Lowell Mason Award for demonstrating outstanding leadership in music education and for making contributions to music and music education.

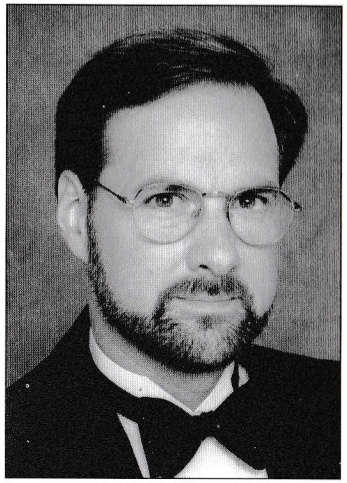
Chorale and Shaker Dance ..... John Zdechlik
Australian Up-Country Tune ..... Percy Aldridge Grainger arr. Bainum
Buffalo Jump Ritual ..... Daniel Bukvich

Paula Demetrio, manager, Arlington Public Schools
Timothy McGinley, assistant manager, Somerville Public Schools



Jeffrey P. Leonard is a Summa Cum Laude graduate of the Berklee College of Music, having majored in Music Education and Jazz Composition and Arranging. He was the first to graduate from Berklee's newly instituted double major program, completing the five year program in four years. He has almost completed his Master's Degree in Music Education at the New England Conservatory of Music and has done additional graduate study at University of Michigan, Boston University, and Central Connecticut State University.

After teaching one year in the Andover, Massachusetts public schools, Mr. Leonard moved to Lexington High School in Lexington, Massachusetts where he has been the director of bands and the jazz program from 1983 to the present, and Acting Coordinator of Music Education from 1988 to 1990. In 1995, Mr. Leonard was the recipient of the Lexington Public School Teacher of the Year award for Exemplary Teaching. He has also taught Music Education courses at New England Conservatory, directed the Jazz Ensemble at Boston University, and for four years was the Music Director for the musical theater productions at Boston College.

As a conductor, he has made many guest appearances with Bands, Orchestras, Pit Orchestras, and Jazz Bands around New England, including the Massachusetts All-State Jazz Ensemble, the New Hampshire All-State Jazz Band (twice), Central District Junior Festival Band and Jazz Ensemble, Central District Senior Festival Jazz Ensemble, the Lions Club All State Jazz Band and the University of New Hampshire Summer Youth Music School. Mr. Leonard has worked as an adjudicator for District, State, and Division festivals, for Heritage Festivals and as a clinician for Concert Band and Jazz festivals and workshops throughout New England. His groups at Lexington High School have been consistent Gold medal winners at MICCA State Festivals, IAJE District and State festivals, the Berklee College of Music Jazz Festival, the University of New Hampshire Jazz Festival and the Essentially Ellington High School Jazz Festival and Competition. They have been invited to perform at MENC All-State and All-Eastern division conventions and IAJE National Conventions.

A Challenge to Young Musicians

Go to, then, you who are gifted; cultivate your gift. Develop it in any of the arts and in every worthy example of them. If you have the ability and the desire, seek a career or employ your talent as an avocation or cultivate it as a hobby.
But in all ways, bless others with it.

Boyd K. Packer

MMEA-ND MUSIC LIBRARY

Providing another service for our membership, the Northeast District music lending library is currently available. The library consists of all District Senior and Junior Festival music performed in the past six years in Band, Orchestra, and Boys', Girls', and Mixed Choruses. Music is loaned for a period of three months at a cost of $10.00 per piece plus shipping and handling if you need to have your order shipped. For more information, call Dan Jordan, MMEA-ND Librarian at Watertown High School.
