

THURSDAY, JANUARY 21, 2016

We are pleased to announce that Dr. Jamie Hillman will be our focus speaker on the topic of Vocal Health

IMPROVE YOUR STUDENTS' SINGING in the CLASSROOM AND ENSEMBLES

Dr. Jamie Hillman is an assistant professor of music at Gordon College, where he teaches undergraduate and graduate courses in music education and directs the Gordon College Choir and Men's Choir. He is an examiner for Conservatory Canada and has adjudicated, guest conducted, and presented throughout Canada and the US, and in Southeast Asia.

A light dinner fare will be served @ 6:00 pm followed by the meeting.
This meeting will be held in Burlington Massachusetts

To RSVP and to obtain further information please contact Mary Correia by January 18 @ mcorreia@rcn.com. All are welcome to attend.

Embracing the New Music Educator Program is a free mentoring program offering onsite classroom observations, onsite rehearsal clinics, mentoring via phone, email and video review. Embracing the New Music Educator Program has been formed through the collaboration of Northeastern District and Gordon College and is endorsed by the Massachusetts Music Educators' Association.

ETNME focuses on connectivity: among those who are new to the world of music education; among those who teach in music education preparatory programs of colleges and universities; and among those mentors who wish to share their best teaching practices, wisdom and passion. For further information please contact: mcorreia@rcn.com; Mary.Correia@gordon.edu.
Sandra.Doneski@gordon.edu