Hailed as a conductor with gusto and exuberance (Jim McDonald, the Boston Musical Intelligencer) whose performances have dynamic and immersing outcomes (John Galigour, the Sun Valley News), and recognized for her intelligent and out of the ordinary programming (Vance Koven, Boston Musical Intelligencer), Ms. Woods has become a recognized and respected conductor in the Boston community and beyond. The Music Director for the Cambridge Symphony Orchestra, Ms. Woods is also a frequent guest conductor, having performed across the U.S., Europe and South America.

Ms. Woods began her conducting career with a literal bang, making her debut with Stravinsky's iconic masterwork The Rite of Spring and the massive 118-piece Worcester Consortium Orchestra. Since then she has gone on to a successful career, winning acclaim in all idioms, including opera, choral, chamber, and symphonic orchestra. She has collaborated with some of today's great artists, including Joan Tower, Lisa Bielawa and Alexander Korsantia, as well as recently serving as the Music Director for Oscar winning director Morgan Neville's (20 Feet from Stardom) newest documentary.

Along with her conducting activities, Ms. Woods is also a frequent speaker and writer. She has been a guest lecturer at institutions such as MIT and the Longy School of Music of Bard College, a panelist for radio shows such as WGBH's Callie Crossley, and a frequent contributor to The Boston Herald's State of the Arts blog. She was awarded a scholarship to study with the Grammy award winning Takacs String Quartet at the University of Colorado Boulder, received the Dean's Talent Award while doing her graduate studies at the Hartt School of Music and won a full fellowship to study composition at the prestigious Atlantic Center for the Arts. In addition to her current roles as Music Director and guest conductor, Ms. Woods also serves on the violin, chamber and conducting faculty of the New England Conservatory's Department of Preparatory and Continuing Studies.
