Dan Perkins is professor of music and director of choral activities at Plymouth State University where in 2007 he was appointed the first Stevens-Bristow Distinguished Professor. He is music director of the Manchester Choral Society and Orchestra and founder and music director of the New Hampshire Master Chorale. He is principal guest conductor and director of choral activities for the New Hampshire Music Festival. He is co-founder, with Dr. Patricia Lindberg, of the Educational Theatre Collaborative and has musically directed and conducted dozens of staged and/or concert musical theatre productions, adding Mary Poppins to his repertoire this fall at PSU. A passionate advocate for new music, Perkins' ensembles have premiered over 20 works by Dr. Jonathan Santore, composer-in-residence for the New Hampshire Master Chorale.

Perkins is a frequent conductor of the New Hampshire Friendship Chorus and led their 2018 tour in Bulgaria. He was principal guest conductor for the Vietnam National Opera and Ballet in Hanoi and was also on the faculty of the Bassi Brugnatelli International Conducting and Singing Symposium in Robbiate, Italy. He is an international guest conductor and choral clinician with past engagements including Ecuador, South Africa, Chile, Hong Kong, and Vietnam. This season's festivals include South Korea and Puerto Rico, as well as the 41st annual All New England Choral Festival at PSU which he produces and conducts.Perkins is also the director and pianist for Trio Veritas, a chamber music ensemble whose configuration changes with unique and varied repertoire. He holds the degrees Doctor of Musical Arts and Master of Music in Choral Music from the University of Southern California, and Bachelor of Music in Piano Performance from Brigham Young University. He continued his studies as a Fulbright scholar in Helsinki, Finland. While there, he worked as the associate conductor of the Finnish Chamber Choir and associate conductor of the Savonlinna Opera Festival Chorus.

PERCUSSION ENSEMBLE

Conducted by Dr. Brian Messier

African Welcome Piece - Michael Udow

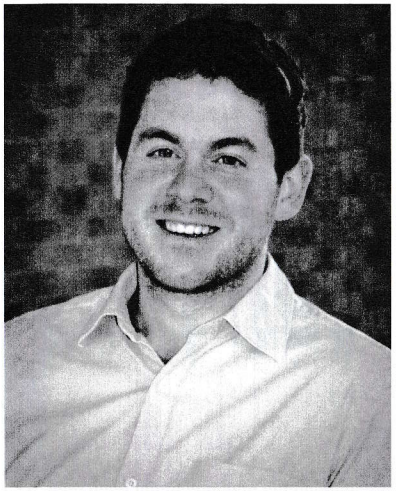
Blue Rondo A La Turk - Brubeck, arr. Crockarell

Mario Medley - Koji Kondo, arr. Scott

A Fifth of Beethoven - arr. Scott

Manager - Dan Fleury, Gloucester Public Schools

Assistant Manager - Nick Abruzzese, Methuen Public Schools



Prof. Brian Messier's research on audience attraction, engagement, and retention has resulted in his participation in the New Audiences and Innovative Practices program in Iceland; guest speaking engagements in Minnesota and the Netherlands; and his appointment to the College Band Director's National Association committee for the advancement of wind music in our culture.

In addition to his position at Williams College, Messier is also Artistic Director of The Valley Winds (www.thevalleywinds.org) and director of bands at Belchertown High School. A percussionist himself, Messier has led the Belchertown High School percussion ensembles to acclaim: the senior percussion ensemble "Size 10" was a featured group at the 2018 All-State music festival and is releasing their first EP this summer. Messier is in high demand as a clinician and guest conductor, and specializes in integrating collaborative practice and innovative techniques into the large ensemble setting.

JAZZ ENSEMBLE

Conducted by Mr. Chris Dorsey

Stolen Moments - Oliver Nelson

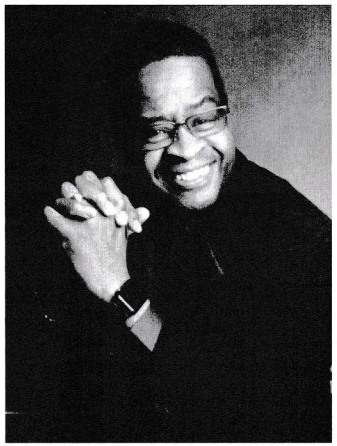
A Night in Tunisia - Duke Ellington

Lindy Hopper's Delight - Eddie Barefield and Teddy McRae

Groove Merchant - Thad Jones

Manager - Sean Buchsbaum, Burlington Public Schools

Assistant Manager - Sean Lee, Ipswich Public Schools



Mr. Dorsey received his Bachelors of Music Education from Jackson State University (1983) and his M. S. of Education – Instrumental Music, from the University of Florida (1986).

Christopher has taught for more than 33 years at various schools in Miami-Dade and Broward Counties. His intent is to give students the opportunity to compete with other high school programs on a State and National level and provide opportunities for students to pursue careers in music. His main mission is to teach life skills through the music.

All of Dorsey's bands: Jazz, Orchestra and Concert, have received Superior Ratings on the District and State levels for more than 28 consecutive years. Students in all of Mr. Dorsey's programs, past and present, have been accepted to the finest colleges, universities and conservatories in the US, often with generous scholarships.

Since 2004, Christopher Dorsey, Director of Jazz Studies and Instrumental Music, has developed the Jazz Program at Dillard Center for the Arts into one of the premier high school jazz programs in the country. Over the years, the program has developed from one to three jazz bands and they have reached a level of skill, style and swing that has earned the program a strong national presence.

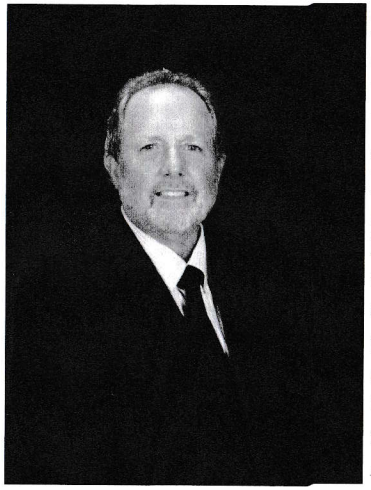
Manager - Justin Smalley, North Andover Public Schools

Assistant Manager - Matt Repucci, Melrose Public Schools



DAVID L. MILLS is the Director of Bands at the University of Connecticut. He joined the music faculty in 1990 and serves as director of the UConn Marching Band and conductor of the Symphonic Band and Varsity Pep Bands. In addition, he has taught courses in music education. He holds the Bachelor of Music and Master of Music Education degrees from Western Carolina University, and earned his Ph.D. in Music Education from the University of Miami. Dr. Mills recently received the School of Fine Arts Outstanding Faculty Award, the UConn Alumni Association's Faculty Excellence in Teaching Award and was inducted into the University of Miami's "Band of the Hour" Hall of Fame. In 2008 Dr. Mills was selected as Kappa Kappa Psi National Sponsor of the Year. Dr. Mills is a frequent guest conductor and clinician and served nationally as member and chairman of the national Marching Band Committee of CBDNA.

Before UConn, Dr. Mills was Director of Bands at Valdosta State University in Valdosta, Georgia, conducting the wind ensemble, concert band, and marching band. At the University of Miami, he served as assistant with the "Band of the Hour". Earlier in his career he established an outstanding band program at Blacksburg High School in Blacksburg, Virginia and was awarded the Phi Delta Kappa Distinguished Educator Award.

Dr. Mills is a member of numerous honorary and service societies in music and education including NAfME, College Band Directors National Association, Kappa Kappa Psi, Tau Beta Sigma, Phi Mu Alpha, Phi Beta Mu Bandmasters Fraternity, and the National Band Association.

ORCHESTRA

Conducted by Adam Boyles

Dream Machine (MMEA-ND Commission) - Brian Balmages

Southern Harmony - Donald Grantham

Manager - Megan Riccio, Belmont Public Schools

Assistant Manager - Michael Coehlo, Ipswich Public Schools

A dynamic and versatile conductor, Adam Kerry Boyles is a notable figure in the musical life of New England. Boyles is currently Director of Orchestras at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Assistant Conductor of the Hartford Symphony Orchestra. Previous Music Director positions include six seasons with the Brookline Symphony Orchestra, three seasons with the Southern Arizona Symphony Orchestra, five seasons with Opera in the Ozarks, and five seasons with MetroWest Opera. Boyles served on the faculty at The University of Texas at Austin and The University of Arizona.

The 2018/2019 season marks Boyles's 12th at MIT, and will feature a celebration of Leonard Bernstein, guest soloists Matthew Roitstein (Houston Symphony) and David Deveau, and co-hosting the 2019 College Orchestra Directors Association national conference. With the Hartford Symphony Orchestra, Boyles conducts a wide variety of Masterworks, Pops, and Educational concerts. He conducted the entirety of the orchestra's 2018 summer season, including a concert in collaboration with Doc Severinsen.

Recent guest engagements include concerts with the Ocean City Pops Orchestra, Charlottesville Symphony Orchestra, and honors orchestras in Massachusetts, Oregon, and Rhode Island. Boyles was a guest clinician with Manhattan Concert Productions for the past three seasons.

An accomplished vocalist, Boyles performed in numerous operas with the Indiana University Opera Theater, and in Arizona Opera's first complete presentation of Wagner's Der Ring des Nibelungen. He has sung with many professional choral ensembles across the country such as Conspirare, True Concord, Apollo's Voice, Mon Choeur, Cantique, and the Tucson Chamber Artists. In 2010, Boyles was featured as a guest soloist with the Tanglewood Festival Chorus.

Boyles received his Doctor of Music in Orchestral Conducting degree from The University of Texas at Austin, his Master of Music in Orchestral Conducting degree from The University of Arizona, and his Bachelor of Music in Vocal Performance degree from Indiana University
